Our Family

We are a large and friendly family. There are six of us: grandfather, grandmother, father, mother, my younger sister and I. I have an elder sister too, she is 22 years old, but she doesn't live with our family. She is married. She has a little family of her own: a husband and a child – a two-year old boy.

Our grandpa is a scientist. He is on the wrong side of 60, but he does not want to retire. He works at the university. He works part-time. He goes to the university two or three times a week and delivers lectures to students and does a scientific work. On the days when he is at home, he works in his study, A .

Our grandma is retired. She was a teacher and worked at school. She is the recognized head of the family. She keeps house. Of course we help her about the house: all of us do our share in daily household chores. My sister washes the dishes, sweeps and washes the floor, washes the sink in the kitchen. My work is B . Our mother and father do most of the shopping. My mother and sister also do washing. But C is done by grandma. She is a wonderful cook, and all our family likes her cooking very much.

Father is a doctor. He works in a large hospital. Mum is an economist and she works at a bank. Both our parents are very busy. Father has a car. In the morning he drives mother to work, then he goes to his hospital. Father also always drives grandfather to work on his University days. My sister and I go to school. We are both senior formers, so naturally school takes up a lot of our time. We spend most of the afternoons and the evenings D .

At the weekend we are not as busy as on week days, and we can relax: visit or receive friends or relations or just go for a walk. I also enjoy quiet Saturday evenings, when all members of our friendly family are at home and nobody is in a hurry and we are quietly sitting in our large and comfortable living-room, E and drinking nice hot cups of tea with something delicious prepared by grandmother.

You have received an email message from your English-speaking pen-friend Hannah:

From: Hannah

To: Russian Friend

Subject: Technology

... Technology is moving so fast lately, it's hard to keep up. What's one piece of technology you couldn't live without? Do you think all these advancements make life better or just more complicated? Have you ever imagined what life might look like 50 years from now?

By the way, I just realized there's a tiny crack in my window...

Write a letter to Hannah.

In your letter:

- answer her questions;
- ask 2 questions about the window.

Write 100–130 words.

Remember the rules of letter writing.
